

Give a second career to your retired sports equipment

(Hong Kong, 6 March 2013) Wouldn't it be awesome if our retired sports equipment, instead of ending up in Hong Kong's landfills, could help trigger the sports passion of many less privileged children around the world? Here is an opportunity for us to do just that. For the 3rd consecutive year, HKBN is pleased to support a 100% student-led project of Kids4Kids to help the needy children around the world via the power of sports.

We would like to ask your support for the annual "Sharing for a Cause" program by donating your retired sports items, be it racquets, shoes, balls etc. There are 33 locations across Hong Kong, including 5 HKBN shops, which serve as collection points for this program. The sports items collected will be sent to Crossroads for distributing to the needy children in Hong Kong, China and abroad.

"We support Kids4Kids for how they nurture Kids to better socially aware leaders of tomorrow. This annual collection drive, managed by local Hong Kong High School Students aged 14-17, is a great example of developing our Hong Kong leaders of tomorrow," said Eros Wong from Administration Department of HKBN.

Agnes Chan, a Year 12 student at Chinese International School and the project leader of this year's team of dedicated Kids4Kids Advocates in charge of "Sharing for a Cause" 2013, strongly believes that "by involving more people in this city-wide campaign we can demonstrate not only the power of youths to make a difference in society, but also the idea that the donation of just one good can impact the lives of many less fortunate people."
