

Must-see Upcoming Netflix Programmes
11 June	Lupin: Part 2 Pursued by Hubert and his henchmen, Assane scrambles to find Raoul and wins an unlikely new ally as he draws up a grand plan to reveal Hubert's crimes.
11 June	Wish Dragon Longing to reconnect with his childhood best friend, resourceful teen Din meets a charming wish-granting dragon who shows him the magic of possibilities.
12 June	Love (ft. Marriage and Divorce): Season 2 It's another season of twists, turns and troubles plaguing the seemingly happy marriages of three women who work on a radio show.
17 June	Hospital Playlist: Season 2 It's another season of extraordinary days for the doctors and patients inside a hospital, where birth, death and everything in between coexist.
17 June	Record of Ragnarok (Anime) As the gods weigh the fate of humanity, a lone valkyrie proposes a final battle pitting 13 gods against 13 mortal champions. Based on the manga.
18 June	Rurouni Kenshin: The Final When a terrifying enemy attacks Tokyo, the stage is set for a high-stakes battle that may expose some of Kenshin's biggest secrets.
24 June	The Naked Director: Season 2 Now known as the pioneer of the adult video industry, Toru Muranishi aims for even loftier heights - his dream to broadcast porn via satellite, but his growing ego and ambitions may spell his downfall.
1 July	Dynasty Warriors (真·三國無雙) Set in the turbulent late Eastern Han Dynasty, ambitious Dong Zhuo ruthlessly controls the court and the commoners, this is when heroes from all over the country begin to rise. Based on the video game.